

Offering Collection Change In an effort to better fulfill the intentions of those making donations through the weekly offering collection, please keep in mind that if you wish for your offering to be received by the "designated recipient" as listed in the weekly bulletin, place your offering in an unmarked tithe envelope. Donations given for the local church budget can be placed as loose offering in the offering plate. Our treasury assistants will know to direct offerings in unmarked envelopes to the "designated recipients". Thank you for your faithfulness in returning to God your tithes and offerings.

What's happening in our church

Next Week Deathbed conversions have long been the stuff of popular lore. But that's not the only time when people "finally see the light." The Bible passage for next week's sermon, out of Isaiah 9, talks about a great light that falls upon people walking in darkness. Join us for next week's Bible message, "When The Lights Come On."

Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.
John 14:12

Welcome! We wish to welcome back Nigel Standish and his family, our guest speaker for the worship service this morning. Nigel is no stranger to our church family and we look forward to again, receiving God's blessing through his sermon.

Healthy Living Cooking Class: Bread Making & Managing Type 2 Diabetes sponsored by our church, will be held Sunday, February 12 at Augusta Regional Clinic beginning at 3pm. Kasey Norton will help us learn the art of healthy bread making and Dr. David Emerson will show how lifestyle changes may help manage Type 2 Diabetes. Seating is limited. Please RSVP to the church office.
