

F O M's 30th Anniversary

2018 marks the 30th anniversary of the work of Far Out Missions. With this milestone comes a redirection in the vision for this ministry. Going into the future it is our vision to focus our energy to begin making an impact in a very specific community; to evangelize, to provide medical support, health education, English language education, to teach community development skills, etc. The next excursion for our Far Out Missions team is now set to take place March 16-26, 2018, with the specific task of developing the Far Out Missions Retreat & Ministry Center. To accomplish this, we request your help in raising $11,000 to help install an Artesian water well and to build student missionary housing. Together, we will continue to make disciples for Jesus in a place where the river is wide, the water is deep... and the fish have teeth!

Prayers Pastor Ken Ford, who was our pastor back in the 1980s, passed away this week. Please keep his family in your prayers.

Prayer Meeting We are starting a new study called 28 Stories. Each study is based on one of our 28 Fundamental Beliefs. We would love to have you join us each Tuesday evening at 7:00 pm.

Thank You! I would like to thank the church for their prayers, cards, and flowers during my surgery and recovery. Hugs, Lorraine

A Pale Horse Rides Maybe you've noticed that increasingly, Christianity has fallen out of favor here in North America. Many people have hard feelings toward Christians, and sometimes those are justified. How can Christianity still insist that it's the religion of Jesus when we all know that Christians ran torture chambers and burned people at the stake? Come, and invite your friends to join us for "A Pale Horse Rides," a 3-night seminar series held here at the Waynesboro Church, beginning on Friday evening, October 27, at 6:30 pm. For more information, visit www.PaleHorseRides.com.
